Hear for yourself...

“Leni Miller has a laser focus on finding exceptional Executive Assistants. That is all she does, and she has made it an art form. Leni is an extraordinary matchmaker, and through a combination of diligent research and keen insight, provides executives with exactly the combination of talent and professionalism that dramatically leverages time and productivity.”

— Mary Huss, Publisher
San Francisco Business Times

“The candidate hired from EASearch has definitely transformed the way our office functions and taken our productivity to a much higher level. His technical computer skills and ability to help with business/deal analysis has given our executive team room to breathe and be far more thoughtful and strategic.”

— Bonny Meyer, Co-Founder, CEO
Silver Oak Winery & Meyer Family Enterprises

“Leni Miller and her team at E.A.Search are not only experts in the area of recruiting, but also in their ability to assess and analyze our company’s staffing needs relative to administrative and operational requirements. We are delighted with our new Operations Manager who is deeply matched to the functional demands of a rapidly growing architectural firm, but is also completely aligned with our company mission and values.”

It is rare to find a search firm so committed to their clients’ success that they take the time up front to assess what is needed...and...can well afford to offer a one year unconditional guarantee in their placements!”
